BARRE DAILY TIMES

Published every week-day afternoon.
Subscriptions: One year, $3; one month, 25 cents; single copy, 1 cent.
Frank E. Langley, Publisher.

Entered at the Postoffice at Barre as Second Class Matter.

THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1908.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

4,750

Another caucus to-night.

Everybody can go back to their haying now.

Stanton made the race interesting toward the last.

Labor had quite a strong voice in the framing of the Republican platform for once.

Four governors have been nominated in Vermont, and one has already been elected.

There will be some fast traveling also at the Granite City trotting park to-morrow and next day.

The two absent delegates to the Republican state convention were queer ones, with 734 attending.

Save your ammunition till you see the whites of their eyes; rather till six o'clock to-morrow night.

The Prouty claim of 450 votes and the Stanton claim of 385 looked like two dried apples after the balloting.

Let it be noted from house to house that William Randolph Hearst publicly admits that he was licked in the New York mayoralty fight; but he admitted it only when he was forced to.

Those forty-four Vermont corporations that lost their charters through non-

A low Shoe with a good, firm and solid sole, not a thin, wafery bottom, is now acknowledged to be the sensible Footwear for hot weather.

payment of taxes probably didn't want them, anyway, or they would have attended to the notices sent out by the state tax commissioner. As a rule, the corporations thus cut off are either out of existence or practically defunct.

THE "RIGHT MAN" ASKED FOR.

In view of to-night's Republican caucus to elect delegates to the county convention next week, the following statement of direct interest to Barre:

"In Barre City two or three bright lawyers aspire to succeed Ben Gates as state's attorney. If Barre City comes before the convention and asks for only state's attorney and has the right man, all will admit that in spite of Mr. Gates' popularity, he would have to hustle for the re-election."

That is certainly an encouraging word for the local aspirants for the position, for it betokens a spirit of square dealing. Therefore, let the city caucus to-night be a thoroughly representative one, in order that the candidate of the city may speak the citizens' minds accurately.

The St. Johnsbury Republican indulges in a bit of mild "I-told-you-so" at the expense of the Haskins publicity bureau in the following:

"In a circular letter to his friends sent out early in the week, Col. Haskins said that the claim in last week's Republican that 223 delegates had been elected for Plumley was the grossest exaggeration and misstatement and mere bluff. Results, results. In fact, Plumley had 217—not so much of a bluff after all!"

And the result shows how accurately the Northfield man figured the result.

THE "BOYS" IN CHARGE AGAIN.

The candidates named yesterday by the Vermont Republicans for state offices are enough to make the believers in "old blood" throw up their hands in distress; for it is essentially a ticket of young men from governor to attorney general. There is only one man who can with propriety lay claim to age, and he (John A. Mead for lieutenant governor) can go back only sixty-seven years. What are we coming to? Is the "old guard" getting overthrown in the dominant party, even as it is in the Democratic? Can we trust the "boys" in the responsible positions?

The answer to the last question is, Yes; and the administration of the past two years is proof positive of the soundness of the answer. The outgoing administration is made up of young men through and through, and in spite of it the state of Vermont did not go to the bottom, but rather did it advance materially along all satisfactory lines. Prouty, Bailey, Graham, Deavitt and Sargent are young, but they are progressive. We need not really worry about their running off with the old state, while John A. Mead certainly can be trusted.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

Miss Lucia Merrill Bride of Joseph Fairbanks of St. Johnsbury.

St. Johnsbury, July 2.—The wedding of Joseph Fairbanks, only son of Mrs. Rebecca P. Fairbanks, and Miss Lucia Merrill, second daughter of Rev. C. H. Merrill, secretary of the Vermont Methodist Missionary society, occurred at the home of the bride on Wednesday afternoon at high noon yesterday. Both bride and groom are very prominent members of St. Johnsbury's social set, and the ceremony was a brilliant affair, witnessed only by relatives and most intimate friends.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward T. Fairbanks, uncle of the bride and by the bride's father. The bride wore white messaline over tulle, trimmed with rose point and Duchess lace and a veil, caught with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

(She was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Merrill, of Washington, D. C., and the best man was Cleveland Rogers of New York City. The ushers were Arthur G. Sprague of this place and Guy B. McKinley of Boston, and the ring bearers, Clifton and Winfield Robinson, nephews of the bride.

The grooms present to the bride was a Steinway grand piano.

A wedding breakfast which followed the service, was served by the music pupils of the bride. Among those from out of town were Mrs. Charlotte Rugg of Arlington, Mass., Miss Alexina Burgess of Wareham, Mass., Miss Anna Becker of Waterbury, Albert Farwell of India, Dr. Walter Merrill of Washington, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Merrill of Pittsburg, Pa.

SOUTH BARRE.

Mrs. Abbie Henry of Waltham, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. H. Adams. Miss Ida Adams has returned from Calcutta, where she has been teaching, to spend the summer vacation. Mary Adams of Waltham, Mass., is also spending her vacation here.

Lancel Hill, who was recently operated on for appendicitis at the Montpelier hospital, is improving.
